

CHOIR

Making a joyful noise, combining choral music in traditional and contemporary idioms, supported by an amazing tracker organ, St. David's choir enriches our Sunday worship for all. Is choir for you? Come and find out. We meet at 10:00 a.m. before our 10:30 worship and then for an hour after worship. Come & See!

ALTAR GUILD

Holy Communion | The Lord's Supper | The Mass | Holy Eucharist | names that describe the sacred sacrament of our Lord's Body and Blood shed for us and celebrated every Sunday. Preparing for our worship includes setting out chalice, bread, wine, water, making sure candles are ready, putting out the Gospel book, the linens and assisting the priest in making sure we are ready for Eucharist. As we are dismissed at the end of worship the Altar Guild member then cleans 'the dishes' and puts away all linens for our next worship service. Is being an Altar Guild member for you? Come & See!

LAYREADER

Scripture is at the very center of our Sunday worship. Layreaders are trained to carry the message of the Sunday scriptures. Three scriptures are read from our lectern as members of St. David's grow into being active participants in our Sunday worship. Is reading scripture for you? Come & See!

GREETERS

When our worship service begins those entering St. David's are welcomed and greeted by our ministers of Greeting. A smile makes an incredible statement for those not familiar with our church, our worship and how things happen and work once they arrive. Making guests, and all who enter, welcome is such a fundamental ministry of who we are as Christ's church. Greeters hand out our worship bulletin, answer questions, help provide a name tag and then participate in our worship service. In many ways we are all called to welcome, is this a ministry for you? Come & See!

EUCCHARISTIC MINISTERS

Serving at the Altar on Sunday morning is a special ministry for those called. A Eucharistic Minister arrives 30 minutes before worship and assists the Priest in preparing for Holy Eucharist and throughout all of worship serving God as a critical part of our share worship. Is this for you? Come & See!

WEEKLY NEWSLETTER
SEPTEMBER 16TH - OCTOBER 2ND

Scot McKnight, One Life: Jesus Calls, We Follow, 21st century

"Those who aren't following Jesus aren't his followers. It's that simple. Followers follow, and those who don't follow aren't followers. To follow Jesus means to follow Jesus into a society where justice rules, where love shapes everything. To follow Jesus means to take up his dream and work for it."

Wilkie Collins, The Moonstone, 19th century

"I am an average good Christian, when you don't push my Christianity too far. And all the rest of you--which is a great comfort--are, in this respect, much the same as I am."

Brennan Manning, The Ragamuffin Gospel, 20th century

"[Jesus] had no romantic notion of the cost of discipleship. He knew that following Him was as unsentimental as duty, as demanding as love."

Dietrich Bonhoeffer, The Cost of Discipleship, 20th century

"To deny oneself is to be aware only of Christ and no more of self, to see only him who goes before and no more the road which is too hard for us."

COMPLINE RETURNS THURSDAY / 5:30 P.M.

Returning to Thursday evenings, Compline, a service of listening to God, opening our hearts in a time of quiet, sitting in silence, chanting and singing Taize songs that allow 'thin' spaces to reveal themselves; this is the promise of a Compline service.

Join us, sit and slowly listen as a different kind of worship unfolds in a short, transforming 30 minutes. Come & see!

Hands of Hope! Join us: Monday, September 24th at 1:00 pm at St. David's in our Library. Questions/information, call Marcie McKaig at 360-426-1933.
